

TrapLoader SS50

Now you can upgrade your Western trap to self-load with the TrapLoader SS50 made by Western Retro.

Western traps have long been recognized for their quality, durability and target presentation. However, as a manual trap they're not as convenient and safe to operate. Now, the SS50 converts these machines to automatic. Compatible with voice activation this kit makes for an excellent personal trap machine. Shop online or call to order yours today!
